

Article Overview

Key manufacturers and suppliers of buried optical fiber cables in Gabon include Hunan GL Technology Co., Ltd., YOA Cable, and Axione Gabon.

Hunan GL Technology Co., Ltd.

Hunan GL Technology Co., Ltd. (GL) is a Chinese company that successfully executed a large-scale buried optical cable project in Gabon in 2019, valued at over $10 million. Their optical cable products are recognized for reliable quality, strong technical performance, and flexible customization options, making them a significant player in Gabon's fiber infrastructure development .

YOA Cable

YOA Cable is Africa's largest optical fiber cable manufacturer, providing high-quality optical fiber products tailored for the African market. They have developed innovative manufacturing processes, such as Fast Fusion Technology (FFT), which improves cable handling during installation, reduces accidental damage, and minimizes the need for specialized equipment. YOA Cable focuses on delivering solutions suitable for buried cable deployment across Africa, including Gabon .

Axione Gabon

Axione Gabon is the local subsidiary of Axione, a company specializing in fiber optic network deployment. While primarily focused on network rollout and infrastructure services, Axione Gabon collaborates with manufacturers and contractors to implement buried fiber optic networks throughout the country .

Additional Context

Gabon is also connected to international submarine cable systems, such as 2Africa, ACE, and the upcoming Medusa Africa cable, which will enhance connectivity and bandwidth. These projects often involve collaboration with global manufacturers and local operators for both underwater and terrestrial fiber deployment . These companies collectively support Gabon's growing digital infrastructure, providing both manufacturing and deployment expertise for buried optical fiber cables.
