Factors Affecting Price

- o Material: Steel, pre-galvanised steel, aluminum, or mesh trays have different costs. Galvanised steel is common for durability and corrosion resistance.
- o Dimensions: Width, height, and length of the tray affect the price. Standard lengths are usually 2-3 meters.
- o Load Capacity: Heavier-duty trays designed for industrial use are more expensive.
- o Accessories: Covers, connectors, and mounting brackets may add to the total cost.

How to Obtain a Quote

- o Visit the supplier websites (FBP Malta, Brownrig Supplies, RS Malta) and select the desired cable tray type.
- o Contact the sales team via email or phone to request a custom quote based on quantity, dimensions, and delivery requirements.
- o For large projects, suppliers may offer bulk discounts or installation advice. By comparing these suppliers and specifying your project requirements, you can obtain accurate pricing and ensure the cable trays meet your installation needs in Malta .
