

Article Overview

Mesh cable trays typically range from $10 to $50 per foot, depending on material, size, and finish.

Overview of Mesh Cable Tray Pricing

Mesh cable trays are widely used for organizing electrical, data, and communication cables in commercial and industrial settings. Prices vary based on material, wire diameter, coating, and tray dimensions. Common materials include steel, stainless steel, aluminum, and electro-galvanized steel, with finishes such as powder coating, hot-dip galvanization, or stainless steel for corrosion resistance .

- o Standard steel mesh trays: $10-$20 per foot
- o Electro-galvanized or powder-coated trays: $15-$30 per foot
- o Stainless steel trays: $25-$50 per foot, offering higher durability and corrosion resistance

Factors Affecting Price

- o Tray Size and Wire Diameter: Larger trays or thicker wires (3-6 mm) increase material costs .
- o Load Capacity: Trays designed to carry heavier cable bundles are priced higher.
- o Coating and Finish: Stainless steel or hot-dip galvanized trays cost more than plain steel due to corrosion protection .
- o Accessories: Bends, tees, risers, and mounting hardware add to the total cost .
- o Brand and Supplier: Premium brands like Legrand, Cablofil, or RS PRO may charge more, while generic suppliers offer economical options .

Where to Buy

- o RS Online: Offers a wide range of mesh cable trays with fast delivery and datasheets for selection .
- o Demma: Provides customizable mesh trays with various coatings and wire diameters .
- o Alibaba: Lists bulk pricing for industrial-grade wire mesh trays, suitable for large projects .
- o McMaster-Carr: Offers over 475 styles and sizes with same or next-day delivery .
- o Cablesandmore: Economical options with accessories for complete cable management systems .

Summary

For most commercial and industrial applications, expect to pay $10-$50 per foot for mesh cable trays, with stainless steel and specialized coatings at the higher end. Prices can vary based on size, material, and supplier, so it is recommended to compare multiple vendors and consider accessories and installation requirements when budgeting.
