

Article Overview

Steel wire cable tray accessories typically range from $5 to $50 per piece, depending on type, size, and material.

Price Range Overview

Steel wire cable tray accessories, including hangers, supports, fittings, bends, tees, and risers, generally cost between $5 and $50 per unit for standard sizes and materials. Simple components like clamps or small connectors are at the lower end ($5-$15), while larger or specialized items such as adjustable hangers, heavy-duty supports, or stainless steel fittings can reach $40-$50 or more per piece .

Factors Affecting Price

o Material Type:

- o Galvanized steel is common and moderately priced.
- o Stainless steel or powder-coated steel is more expensive due to corrosion resistance and durability .
- o Aluminum or fiberglass alternatives may also affect cost.

o Size and Load Capacity:

- o Larger trays or accessories designed for heavy-duty industrial applications cost more.
- o Accessories for high-capacity cable trays require thicker steel or reinforced designs, increasing price .

o Type of Accessory:

- o Standard hangers, clamps, and connectors are cheaper.
- o Bends, tees, risers, and custom configurations are more expensive due to manufacturing complexity .

o Supplier and Region:

- o Prices vary by supplier and shipping location. International suppliers may offer lower base prices but higher shipping costs .
- o Local distributors like RS Hong Kong provide ready-to-ship options with consistent quality but may have slightly higher prices .

Purchasing Tips

- o Bulk Orders: Buying in bulk often reduces per-unit cost.
- o Material Selection: Choose the appropriate material for your environment to balance cost and durability.
- o Compatibility: Ensure accessories match the cable tray system (ladder, wire mesh, or solid-bottom trays) to avoid additional costs . In summary, while exact prices vary, most steel wire cable tray accessories fall within
