

Article Overview

You can purchase new and used spectrometers in the UAE from online stores, supplier directories, and specialized equipment marketplaces.

Online Retail Options

- o Amazon UAE offers a selection of spectrophotometers, which are suitable for laboratory and industrial applications. Availability may vary, and some products may have limited stock, so checking individual listings is recommended for pricing and specifications (Amazon.ae) .
- o Whizz Others Store in Dubai provides a wide range of spectrophotometers from popular brands with free delivery across the UAE. This is convenient for buyers looking for new instruments with online ordering options .

Supplier Directories

- o Yellow Pages UAE lists leading suppliers and manufacturers of spectrophotometers and spectrometers in Dubai and across the UAE. You can contact suppliers directly for quotes, detailed specifications, and bulk orders, which is ideal for industrial or research applications .
- o ReachUAE Business Directory helps locate the nearest spectrophotometer stores and suppliers, providing contact details and store locations for easier in-person purchases .

Used and Specialized Spectrometers

- o Machinio offers listings for new and used spectrometers in the UAE, including models like the Shimadzu ICPE 9820 ICP OES with autosamplers and compact portable spectrometers. Prices for used instruments can start around USD 15,000, and buyers can negotiate directly with sellers. This platform is useful for finding high-end or specialized spectrometers at discounted rates .

Tips for Buying

- o Determine your application: Choose between optical, ICP, or compact spectrometers depending on whether you need chemical analysis, material identification, or portable testing.
- o Check specifications: Ensure the wavelength range, sensitivity, and accessories meet your requirements.
- o Consider shipping and maintenance: For used instruments, confirm safe shipping procedures and inquire about maintenance schedules or calibration services.
- o Compare prices: New instruments may be more expensive but come with warranties, while used instruments can be cost-effective but may require additional servicing.
