

What are some Lao companies that manufacture wire mesh cable trays

Article Overview

Several wire mesh manufacturers and suppliers in Laos produce cable trays suitable for industrial and commercial installations.

In Laos, businesses looking for wire mesh cable trays can explore local manufacturers and suppliers listed on trade platforms like Trademo, which provide detailed shipment activities, trade volumes, and contact information for companies across the country. These suppliers typically offer a range of products including wire mesh basket trays, ladder-type trays, and perforated cable trays, made from materials such as mild steel, stainless steel, and aluminum.

Key Features of Lao Wire Mesh Cable Tray Suppliers

- o Product Range: Medium duty to ultra heavy duty trays, adaptable for ceiling, wall, or raised floor installations.
- o Customization: Many suppliers can fabricate QuickTurn prefab fittings for turns, T-junctions, and elevation changes, reducing on-site labor.
- o Durability: Trays are designed to resist moisture buildup, protect cable insulation, and comply with international standards.
- o Support Services: Suppliers often provide accessories, brackets, and hangers to ensure proper installation and grounding.

How to Find Specific Companies

- o Trademo Laos Wire Mesh Manufacturers: This platform lists multiple Lao manufacturers and suppliers, including their locations in Vientiane, Champasack, Attapeu, Savannakhet, and Bolykhamxay provinces.
- o Trade Intelligence: By subscribing to Trademo Intel, businesses can access detailed company profiles, shipment histories, and contact information to identify the most suitable suppliers for wire mesh cable trays. For practical procurement, it is recommended to contact these suppliers directly to confirm product specifications, material options, and delivery capabilities. This ensures that the wire mesh cable trays meet the specific requirements of your industrial or commercial project.
