

Which Irish cable tray brand is good and affordable

Article Overview

For the best value for money in Ireland, GroupSumi and PEMCO stand out for their combination of affordability, quality, and service.

GroupSumi

GroupSumi offers a wide range of affordable and durable cable trays, making it a strong choice for projects where cost efficiency is important. Their catalogue allows easy comparison of products to suit different budgets, and they provide fast shipping and customer support to help select the right tray for each installation, ensuring a hassle-free experience and good value for money (GroupSumi) .

PEMCO

PEMCO is Ireland's long-standing manufacturer of cable management systems, with over 50 years of experience. They focus on durable, high-quality products and provide nationwide next-day delivery and expert consultation. While their products may be slightly higher in price than some online suppliers, the combination of reliability, in-house manufacturing, and strong customer support makes them a cost-effective choice in the long term (PEMCO) .

Niedax CMS Ireland and Excel Electric Group

Both Niedax CMS Ireland and Excel Electric Group are part of the Niedax Group, offering high-quality cable trays and support systems. They provide expert advice, project support, and tailored solutions, which can be valuable for large-scale or specialized projects. While they may not always be the cheapest option, their comprehensive service and product reliability can justify the cost for professional installations (Niedax CMS Ireland, Excel Electric Group) .

Electrical Wholesaler Ireland

Electrical Wholesaler Ireland offers competitive prices and fast delivery for a range of cable trays suitable for domestic and industrial use. They are a convenient option for standard projects where budget and quick availability are priorities (Electrical Wholesaler Ireland) .

Recommendation

- o Best for budget-conscious projects: GroupSumi, Electrical Wholesaler Ireland
